Gwen Stefani Second Solo LP Delayed

Published: 2005-12-07

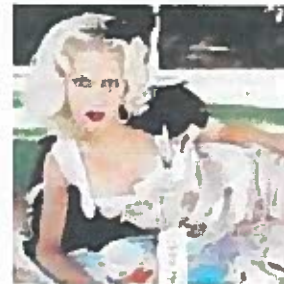

Gwen Stefani needs a break from all the madness, for the time being anyways. Stefani was planning on releasing a second solo album by year's end, but scrapped plans to release it to the public simply because she needs to take a rest.

Stefani told the San Francisco Chronicle that she has a really good record she could put out, but would rather rest up first. "I literally went from the Rock Steady tour with No Doubt then into the studio to work on "It's My Life" for the band's greatest hits LP like the week we got off," she said. "Then it was studio torture making this record. Now here we are."

That doesn't even include acting in "The Aviator", starting her own fashion line and going on tour to promote her first solo LP, Love, Angel, Music, Baby. She had a lot of leftover tracks from producing the first album including new tracks just recently recorded with producer, Pharrell.

So does this leave a No Doubt reunion open for a possibility? Maybe, but for now Stefani needs some sleep.
